

SPRING TRIP TO LONDON, PARIS, AND AMSTERDAM

March 22-April 6, 2018
With Independent Tours

Join us on a memorable, interesting, and fun journey to three of the top travel destinations in Europe. There is a good reason why so many people choose to go to these three historic cities on their European trips—there is so much to do and experience: Great museums, fabulous dining and nightlife, beautiful landmarks, a cornucopia of stores, markets and iconic places to explore. You can't go wrong with these three! You'll stay in centrally-located, high quality hotels, with interesting things to do all around within walking distance. You can take advantage of the superb public transportation to speed you to things to see and do that are a bit further away, including day trips outside the cities. You will travel between the three base destinations on high-speed rail. We do the logistics for you, you choose how you will spend your time. And you have options to shorten or lengthen your trip on either end depending on how much time you have. Make it fit for you.

$4,750—BASE TRIP PRICE

Includes round-trip airfare SFO or LAX-London and Amsterdam, double occupancy lodging, all breakfasts, and all group rail and charter transportation within Britain, France, Belgium, and the Netherlands

How to Sign Up:

Sign-ups are now being accepted. Book early because this trip will fill up quickly. There are only 20 spots available.

More information and applications available here:

<http://www.independenttours.net/londonparisamsterdam.html>

Or Email us— kentporter@independenttours.net

Or call us—707-462-8548

Independent Tours is a registered California Seller of Travel with the Attorney General's Office of the State of California, CST Bernard Kent Porter #2093529-40